

About the project

The mission of project is providing students and young professionals from every country with the most comfortable and supportive homestay accommodation during their stay in the US.

Virtual 3d tour

You can conduct a 3d-tour of the selected apartments, review photos and profiles of the hosts and choose a homestay based on your preferences!

Find A Home Away From Home In The Most Interesting Cities In The United States

Home Page

Searching for a place to stay through HomestayMatch is simple. We have taken into consideration distance to your school, public transportation and quality of our host rooms. We have analyzed all those factors so the search results you receive are the most relevant for you.