Subject to seo-text. Very large and informative in as many as two lines

The most famous "fish" is a famous text Lorem ipsum. It is believed that the first time it was applied in the typography in the XVI century. His appearance Lorem ipsum obliged ancient Roman philosopher Cicero, after all of his treatise "On the limits of good and evil" medieval book printers snatched some phrases and words, received text "fish", is widely used to this day. Of course, there are some problems associated with the use of Lorem ipsum on sites and projects focused on the Cyrillic content - writing characters in Latin and Cyrillic varies considerably.

Subject to seo-text of the second. Not very big

And even with languages that use the Latin alphabet, there may be a small problem: in different languages or that letters appear with different frequencies, there is a difference in the length of the most common words. Hence the conclusion that it is better to use as a "fish" the text in the language you want to use when starting the project. Today, there are several options Lorem ipsum, in addition, there are special generators that create their own versions of the text based on the original treatise, whereby it is possible to get longer nonrecurring nomenclature.
